

Please don't take away the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. I don't like being bombarded with all the telephone solicitations. This is my telephone for my private use. It is not so that people can call and bother me and give me the high-pressure sales tactics.